Join us for the National Nurse Educator Summit

The National Nurse Educator Summit is a leading industry event featuring nursing professionals from across the country that share a passion for education and lifelong learning. Three info-packed days help nurse educators explore critical issues facing nursing and healthcare today and grow in their profession. ATI hosts this event, yet it is not exclusive to ATI schools nor is it about ATI content — it's about supporting and building a stronger nursing industry, creating an environment for collaboration, and providing a forum to facilitate growth.

Who attends the Summit?

The National Nurse Educator Summit will feature over 600 administrators and faculty from across the country who share a passion for education and lifelong learning. Attendees will have the opportunity to join discussions on the critical issues facing nursing and healthcare today, as well as share knowledge, celebrate achievement and build relationships that promote a stronger nursing industry.

Who should exhibit?

Vendors that market nursing education tools as well as companies that specialize in nursing products, book and software publishers, educational programs and institutions, and nursing product or apparel companies. ATI Nursing Education reserves the right to decline any applications that are not consistent with the educational focus of the conference or the organization.

Carpeting

The exhibit hall is carpeted. Only a low-adhesive tape is permitted. Gray duct tape, electrical tape and foam adhesive tapes are not permitted. Exhibitors are responsible for the complete removal of all tape used on floor ways and other areas.

Security and Liability

Exhibitors need to secure and safeguard their materials from the time they are placed in the booth until they are removed. The exhibit hall will be secured from the general public while vacant. ATI will not be responsible for loss or damage due to any cause.

Space is leased with the understanding that ATI assumes no liability whatsoever for damages. Exhibitors shall indemnify and hold harmless ATI from all liability (damage or accident) that might ensue from any cause resulting from or connected with transportation, placement, removal or display of exhibits. Exhibitors are urged to insure themselves against such risks of loss or liability.

Special Regulations

Adhesive-backed stickers – Exhibitors are not permitted to give out adhesive-backed stickers.

Advertising – Advertising materials or exhibitor signs other than those associated with those who have reserved space are not permitted. Solicitation of business, except by exhibitors, is not permitted.

Americans With Disabilities Act – Each exhibitor will be responsible for complying with the Americans With Disabilities Act (ADA) within its booth and assigned exhibit space.

Audiovisuals – Multimedia presentations are encouraged, but cannot block aisles or other access. Multimedia presentations with sound must take place in a soundproof room, or in an area where nearby exhibitors are not disturbed.

Booth equipment – All booth equipment must be in position before the exhibit hall opens and must remain in position and staffed during the activities scheduled in the exhibit area. Booths cannot be broken down before the scheduled time, unless approved by ATI.

Courtesy – Please do not infringe about the rights and privileges of other exhibitors. Interviews, demonstrations, distribution of literature, etc., must take place inside the exhibitor's booth. Canvassing outside the booth is not permitted.

Easels – Easels for exhibitors must be obtained from the exhibit service company. These easels can only be used inside the exhibit hall.

Fire safety – Required fire exits may not be blocked, or used for moving exhibit materials in or out, or used as storage areas. Booth construction shall be substantial and fixed in position in specified areas for the duration of the Summit. Easels, signs, etc., shall not be placed beyond booth areas into the aisles. All decorations, drapes, signs, banners, plastic cloth and similar decorative materials shall be flame-proofed before being used in any exhibit.

Installation – Exhibits cannot extend beyond the space reserved or obstruct the view of or interfere with other exhibits.
